

The ESCL Professional Seminar on Construction Law

(to be accredited by the Milan Bar Association)

The ESCL Professional Seminar on Construction Law is addressed to practitioners: (i) Mid-level lawyers, (ii) Trainee lawyers, (iii) Architects, (iv) Engineers.

It will take place in Milan (Italy) from 3 to 5 September 2020.

This is the detailed programme of the Seminar:

Day 1

Contract for Design addressed by Monika Chao Duvis and Bastian Fuchs

- The role and obligations of the parties to the contract from a transnational point of view
- The use and legal aspects of BIM in the international arena
- Copyright issues even under the European case-law
- Case study on Design: exercises and discussion

Contract for Works addressed by Roberto Panetta and Adriana Spassova

- Liability of the contractor and subcontractors from a transnational point of view
- Ground risk in the major international projects
- Mandatory insurances from a transnational point of view
- Case study on Works: exercises and discussion

Day 2

Partnering and alliances addressed by Arent Van Wassenae

- Construction Collaborative Contracts
- NEC3 and NEC4 and other foreign experiences
- Case study on partnering procedures. Exercises and discussion.

European Public Procurement Law addressed by Virginie Colaiuta

- Procedures
- Choice of participants
- Criteria for selection
- Suitability requirements
- Award criteria
- Awarding of contracts
- Judicial protection

Day 3

Dispute Avoidance and Dispute Resolution in construction law addressed by Romano Allione (Engineer, DRBF Member) and Marcello Viglino (Engineer, Contract Management Salini Impregilo S.p.A., member of the Italian Society of Construction Law).

- Dispute Board and other dispute avoidance/resolution mechanisms under FIDIC Conditions
- How to draft the dispute board agreement. Exercises and discussion
- Site visits: advantages and drawbacks. Examples of standing and ad hoc DAAB and the importance of the site visits.
- Dispute Board and project cost control.

Construction Contracts and Courts in Europe: A first hand experience addressed by Muhamed Mesic Senior (TBC), Counsel & EMEA Head of Insurance Keller Grundbau Ges.mbH, Engineer and attorney admitted in Austria and Bosnia.

- Comparison among different experiences in the European Courts
- Case by case analysis.

Forecasted costs and procedure to register

7 speakers multiplied by 2 nights: 14 nights multiplied by Euro 150,00 = Euro 2.100,00

7 (return) travels multiplied by Euro 300,00 = Euro 2.100,00

36 meals multiplied by Euro 50,00 = Euro 1.800,00

Location for 3 days: Euro 400,00 multiplied by 3 days = Euro 1.464,00

Sub Total: Euro 7.464,00

Costs at completion: approximately Euro 9.000,00.

Registration until 15th July 2020

Price: Euro 1.000,00 plus VAT (where applicable)

Participation: 15 attendees (minimum)